

Crossroads Academy Code of Conduct

Crossroads must be a safe place physically, emotionally, and intellectually for everyone. To that end our Code of Conduct is as follows:

Respect for self means:

- Showing self control
- Striving for academic and moral excellence
- Summoning the courage to do the right thing

Respect for others means:

- Showing compassion, courtesy, patience, kindness, and forgiveness
- Communicating thoughtfully
- Sharing generosity of spirit

Respect for our community means:

- Exercising honesty and stewardship
- Showing commitment to the school and its rules
- Protecting the learning environment
