Composition 7

Your first composition class will be your final short story work period. Once you turn in your story, you may begin working on your Frost portfolio during composition class.

- () Read 24 (or more) Frost poems.
Record "Poem Titles" along with your notes regarding Frost's great lines, recurring themes, style, and more.
- () Take a web quest & notes to compose a two-paragraph biography of Frost.
- () Complete a close reading (analysis AND interpretation) of one poem.
- () Memorize and recite at least two Frost poems.
- () Translate a short poem into French or Spanish or Latin &/or . . . ?
- () Compose two poems to demonstrate your mastery of Frost's poetics.
- () Construct a creative response to Frost's work. This might be a short film, a Keynote presentation, an art, music, or dance project, a poem sequence, or an illuminated manuscript. What will YOU do? "You come too."
