

English 8
May 8 - 12, 2017
Teacher: Mr. Glazer

I am not that I play. (I.v.72)

The week at a glance:

Monday 5/8	Tuesday 5/9	Wednesday 5/10	Thursday 5/11	Friday 5/12
Vocabulary Review 15 & 16 ----- Twelfth Night Act I You've read through Act I	ERB Exam		Grammar Lesson ----- Twelfth Night Act II You've read through Act II	Sh-ocab ----- Twelfth Night Watch Acts I & II

Literature

A set of twins were almost drowned
In shipwreck, but were later found,
Though neither knew his twin was saved
This play's about how they behaved!

Composition

You have two weeks to compose a 5 - 7 paragraph essay responding to one or two short stories. I suggest that you use the first six days to plan, outline, and compose your initial draft; use the final four days for your second and third draft, as well as your final read aloud and edit. These compositions are due on Thursday, May 18.

Vocabulary

Mrs. Lechner will review chapters 15 and 16 on Monday, May 8. You will have a test covering chapters 15 and 16 on Monday, May 15.

Grammar

There will be a grammar lesson with Mrs. Price on Thursday, May 11.

Sh-ocab

We meet these twelve words in the first two acts of William Shakespeare's Twelfth Night! You will also find them on Quizlet at: 8th: Sh-ocab list for 5-12-17.

abatement	abjured	accost	bounteously	consanguineous	Elysium
feigned	misdemeanor	mollification	pestilence	prodigal	surfeiting