NOVEMBER 13 - 17, 2017
TEACHER: MR. GLAZER

“Truth is such a rare thing, it is delightful to tell it.”
- Emily Dickinson, 1870

Character Education

Thank you letters are due on Monday, November 13. Please continue working on your “Benjamin Franklin Experiment.”

Literature & Composition

For the next two weeks, we will continue working on “This is My Letter to the World,” a multi-genre Emily Dickinson project. I expect you to complete 20 – 40 minutes of English homework 4 to 5 days (or nights) this week. Here is a checklist!

- | | |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Complete the Dickinson web quest | <input type="checkbox"/> Memorize and recite at least 3 poems |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Read at least 25 Dickinson poems | <input type="checkbox"/> Compose at least two poems in the style of Emily Dickinson |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Take notes from one scholarly essay | <input type="checkbox"/> Craft a letter to a family member, friend, or mentor to share your work. The letter will include: (a) a greeting; (b) a brief explanation of our project; (c) an introduction to Dickinson’s poetry; and (d) your original poetry. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Submit a close reading and analysis of one Dickinson poem | <input type="checkbox"/> Bonus work: additional reading, writing, analysis, memorization, artwork, musical performance, nature study. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Compose a 1 - 2 page response to a second Dickinson poem | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Construct a project portfolio, including cover & creative response | |
