

ENGLISH 7
NOVEMBER 14 - 18, 2016
TEACHER: MR. GLAZER

Literature & Composition

During English and composition we continue working on “This is My Letter to the World,” a multi-genre Emily Dickinson project. By the end of this project, you will:

- | | |
|--|--|
| () Complete the Dickinson web quest | () Memorize and recite at least 3 poems |
| () Read at least 25 Dickinson poems | () Compose at least two poems |
| () Take notes from one scholarly essay | () Craft a letter to a family member, friend, or mentor to share your work. |
| () Submit a complete analysis of one Dickinson poem | The letter will include: (a) a greeting; |
| () Compose a 1-2 page narrative response to a second poem | (b) an explanation of this project; |
| | (c) an introduction to your poem; |
| | (d) an original poem; (e) a closing. |

Your polished portfolios are due on Tuesday, November 22.

Grammar

Please complete exercises 4, 5, and 6 (pages 340 – 344) in Warriner’s English Grammar. This work is due on Thursday, November 17.

Vocabulary

On Monday, November 14, you will have a test covering chapters 5 and 6 in Vocabulary from Classical Roots.

Independent Reading & Writing

Independent reading and writing will be collected on Tuesday, November 15.

Spelling

The next spelling test will be held on Friday, November 18. The test will select 12 terms from this list of 40 words used to discuss Emily Dickinson’s poetry. For assistance, visit mr_glazer @ Quizlet: 7th: list for 11-18-16.

Alliteration	assonance	consonance	elision	end rhyme
eye rhyme	rime riche	internal rhyme	slant rhyme	rhyme scheme
simile	metaphor	extended metaphor	antithesis	allusion
epiphora	epizeuxis	isocolon	chiasmus	polyptoton
couplet	tercet	quatrain	sestet	octave
beat	poetic foot	monometer	dimeter	trimester
tetrameter	pentameter	hexameter	iamb	hymn meter
dash	capitalization	Franklin number	fascicle	title