

ENGLISH 7
NOVEMBER 21 - 22, 2016
TEACHER: MR. GLAZER

NOTE: THE FIRST TRIMESTER ENDS ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 22

Literature & Composition

During English and composition we complete "This is My Letter to the World," our multi-genre Emily Dickinson project. By the end of this project, you will:

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ Complete the Dickinson web quest | ☐ Memorize and recite at least 3 poems |
| ☐ Read at least 25 Dickinson poems | ☐ Compose at least two poems |
| ☐ Take notes from one scholarly essay | ☐ Craft a letter to a family member, friend, or mentor to share your work. |
| ☐ Submit a complete analysis of one Dickinson poem | The letter will include: (a) a greeting; |
| ☐ Compose a 1-2 page narrative response to a second poem | (b) an explanation of this project; |
| | (c) an introduction to your poem; |
| | (d) your original poem; (e) a closing. |

Your polished portfolios are due on Tuesday, November 22. The final unit exam will take place on Tuesday, November 29.

Grammar

Please complete Review Exercise A, Review Exercise B, and Posttest 1 (pages 345 – 351) in Warriner's English Grammar. This work is due on Wednesday, November 30.

Vocabulary

On Monday, November 28, Mrs. Lechner will review chapter 7 of Vocabulary from Classical Roots.

Independent Reading & Writing

Independent reading and writing will be collected on Tuesday, November 22.

Spelling

There will NOT be a spelling test this week. Please use "7th: list for 11-18-16" to review for the final exam.

Alliteration	assonance	consonance	elision	end rhyme
eye rhyme	rime riche	internal rhyme	slant rhyme	rhyme scheme
simile	metaphor	extended metaphor	antithesis	allusion
epiphora	epizeuxis	isocolon	chiasmus	polyptoton
couplet	tercet	quatrain	sestet	octave
beat	poetic foot	monometer	dimeter	trimeter
tetrameter	pentameter	hexameter	iamb	hymn meter
dash	capitalization	Franklin number	fascicle	title