

ENGLISH 7
NOVEMBER 6 - 10, 2017
TEACHER: MR. GLAZER

On Thursday, November 9, Prof. Ivy Schweitzer will visit our class!

Character Education

On Friday, November 10, we will celebrate Veterans Day. Our class will express our gratitude to the veterans in our community by sharing a few notable Dickinson poems.

Literature & Composition

For the next three weeks, we will begin working on “This is My Letter to the World,” a multi-genre Emily Dickinson project. During this project, students will:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Complete the Dickinson web quest                                   | <input type="checkbox"/> Memorize and recite at least 3 poems                                     |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Read at least 25 Dickinson poems                                   | <input type="checkbox"/> Compose at least two poems   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Take notes from one scholarly essay                                | <input type="checkbox"/> Craft a letter to a family member, friend, or mentor to share your work. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Submit a close reading and analysis of one Dickinson poem          | The letter will include: (a) a greeting;  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Compose a 1-2 page response to a second Dickinson poem             | (b) a brief explanation of our project;   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Construct a project portfolio, including cover & creative response | (c) an introduction to Dickinson’s poetry; and (d) your original poetry.                          |

Grammar

There will be a grammar lesson on Wednesday, November 8. We will work with Emily Dickinson’s grammar textbook!

Vocabulary

Mrs. Lechner will work with Chapter 5 on Monday, November 6.

Independent Reading & Writing

Independent reading and writing is due on Tuesday, November 7.

Spelling

The next spelling test will be held on Thursday, November 9. These words are drawn from our study of Emily Dickinson’s poetry. For assistance, visit mr\_glazer @ Quizlet. The title of this set is 7th: list for 11-9-17.

fascicle	Franklin number	stanza	iamb
hymn meter	trimeter	tetrameter	slant rhyme
rhythm	rhyme scheme	quatrain	Emily Dickinson