

FIFTH GRADE WEEKLY PLANS MARCH 6-10, 2017 TEACHER: DR. FREEBERG

Virtue: Honesty

Psalm: 5

Dear Parents,

The fifth grade was warmly received at Hanover Greens on Friday night. Several of the residents asked us to return soon. Dartmouth Idol was very inspiring. On Wednesday and Thursday of this week, students will write a four-paragraph practice writing prompt essay on the virtues of the main character in The Ballad of Lucy Whipple. This will be completed without any editorial support and will help all students to become more independent in the writing process. In history we will conclude our study of Westward Expansion before the Civil War and prepare for an assessment scheduled for Friday. In class we will also continue our reading of American tall tales as time allows.

Sincerely,

Bruce Freeberg

DATES TO REMEMBER:

Monday: Final Lucy Whipple Literature Circle on Chapters 16-19

Wednesday and Thursday: Practice Writing Prompt Essay

Friday: Test on Westward Expansion Before the Civil War

HOMEWORK:

Monday: Finish taking notes for long answer questions and review terms for history test; Finish choosing examples and quotes for writing prompt essay

Tuesday: Review for history test and review examples for practice writing prompt

Wednesday: Review for history test

Thursday: Final Review for history test

Friday: Read "Railroads Come to the West" and answer reading questions