

FIFTH GRADE WEEKLY PLANS APRIL 10-14, 2017 TEACHER: DR. FREEBERG

Virtues: Self-Control and Self-Discipline

Psalm: 19:14

Dear Parents,

Our play is taking shape, and I anticipate that we will put on a great show for you on May 5th. This week we will continue to work on the play, and we will conclude our study of slavery and our close reading of The Narrative of Frederick Douglass. We will have reading quizzes on chapters 5 and 6 from Douglass, and students will write chapter summaries of chapters 7-9. Students should review a set of words from chapters 5 and 6 of Douglass for a vocabulary quiz on Friday. This week students will also finish assigned history readings and begin to review for a history test on slavery. They should re-read key sections of the textbook and take notes using the review sheet provided. Finally, we will conclude our reading of Uncle Remus tales, and students will begin to compose an original tale using the cast of characters and the style of the original tales. The history test and the due date for the Uncle Remus tale will be scheduled for mid-week after spring break.

Sincerely,

Bruce Freeberg
