Read Aloud: The Tale of Despereaux

Hello Parents!

I remember when I was a kid in elementary school the time between Thanksgiving and Christmas seemed so long! These days it flies by; I already need to be starting the last units before our winter recess (magnetism, measurement of length and mass, generosity and service). Don't forget about the Holiday Concert on December 14th; this year the second and third graders will be performing several choral pieces together.

Two more thoughts:

1. Report cards: The first term will end tomorrow, Nov. 22nd, and report cards will be available soon after December 6th. The process for receiving them will involve logging onto a parent portal. Please contact me after you view your child's report card if you have questions or concerns. I would be happy to respond by email, have a phone conversation, or meet in person. On December 9th, I will be available for conferences in the afternoon.
2. Many of the kids really put their hearts into the gratitude box books that they made. I hope that they have an opportunity to share their thoughts with the family on Thanksgiving.

With Thanksgiving this week, you may ask what I am thankful for. Well, many things, two of them being your wonderful children and your kind support. Have a lovely holiday.

Warm regards,
Marj
