

SEVENTH GRADE HISTORY 11/20-12/14, 2017 DR. FREEBERG

UNIT III: WORLD WAR I

During our World War I unit, students will practice taking notes on assigned reading. There will be a series of open-note quizzes over the course of the unit, ending with an open-note test. Students will also choose a research topic and prepare a 3-5 minute slide presentation. Presentations will be due during the second week after the winter break.

Due Monday, Nov. 20th: Read Ch. 1, "Igniting the Powder Keg" (pp. 77-81); Take Notes!

Due Tuesday, Nov. 21st: Read Ch. 2, "The Great War," "Home by Christmas," "How World War I Started," "The War Widens on Two Fronts," (pp. 83-86); Take Notes

Due Monday, Nov. 27th: Read Ch. 2, "Horror in the Trenches" "The Christmas Truce," "Deadly Firepower," "Verdon and Somme..." "Dulce et Decorum Est" (pp. 86-90); Take Notes

Due Tuesday, Nov. 28th: Read Ch. 2, "The Eastern Front and Challenges for the Ottomans," "The Armenian Massacre," "Lawrence of Arabia" "The Ottoman Turks," (pp. 90-91); Take Notes

Due Thursday, Nov. 30th: "War at Sea," "The Sinking of the Lusitania," "War in the Skies" (pp. 91-93); Take Notes

Due Monday, Dec. 4th: Read Ch. 2, "Total War," "The War of Emotions: Propaganda," "The Great War and Women's Suffrage", "Women's Changing Roles," "Grim Prospects," (pp. 93-94); Take Notes

Due Tuesday, Dec. 5th: Read ch. 4, "War's End and a Troubled Peace," "Lafayette, We Are Here!," "Wilson's High Ideals" (pp. 107-108); Take Notes

Due Thursday, Dec. 7th: Read Ch. 4, "Wilson's 14 Points," "What If?," "The War's End" (pp. 108-112); Take Notes; Last Day to Declare Research/Slide Presentation Topic

Due Monday, Dec. 11th: Read ch. 4, "The 'Glorious Dead'," "The Cost of Total War," "Versailles: A Punitive Peace" (pp. 112-115); Take Notes

Due Tuesday, Dec. 12th: Read ch. 4, "Redrawing the Map," "German Response to the Treaty," "American Isolationism" (pp. 115-117); Take Notes

Due Thursday, Dec. 14th: Work on slide presentation!